Movement Under Development (M.U.D.) and Fearliss Productions present GRIMM, an evening-length infusion of dance, theater, puppetry and aerial silk. In a land corrupted by famine and fear, parents grapple with the decision to abandon their children. Our pint sized protagonists come of age as they find themselves lost in the woods. Travelling through a world of tumbling moonstones, dancing fire, prophetic puppets, and a vaulting woodsman, the journey culminates in an aerial adventure beyond their wildest dreams. Grimm's family move from the intoxication of high impact swing dance to bittersweet moments of physical entanglement as they discover the light in the heart of the wood.

Join us for this exciting tale of empowerment and courage, a family-friendly production which will premiere in New York City, Summer 2006.
